

LEADERSHIP AND BOARD OF DIRECTORS

David Ellison, CPA CFO

Mr. David Ellison is the CFO of TargaCell Corporation, using his biotech startup experience to position TargaCell to succeed in developing a cogent business financial plan. Additionally, he has over 35 years of experience as a CPA. Before TargaCell, David worked as the Chief Financial Officer and Chief Operating Officer of a biotech startup that developed, constructed, and operated a licensed long-term care facility specializing in Alzheimer's care.

From 1996 to 2010, David was the Chief Financial Officer and Corporate Secretary of a biotech company working on diagnostic tests and treatments for Alzheimer's disease that went public in 2002; in 2010, he founded a virtual biotech company working on Type 1 Diabetes and Cancer treatments. In addition, he continued his management consulting practice, assisting startup companies and companies in transition. Before TargaCell, David worked with a biotech startup, a unique retail startup, and a multi-national, multi-billion-dollar manufacturing company that spun out its North American operations as a public company.

David is a member of Jacobs & Newmark, PC maintaining his accounting and tax practice. He is a member of the Illinois CPA Society and the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. David has expertise with the accounting, tax, and business issues facing individuals, companies, startups, and entities working in highly regulated fields, experience with contract negotiations with academic institutions and Fortune 500 companies, and many years of SEC reporting experience.

Mr. Ellison earned a B.S. in accounting in 1984 from the University of Illinois in Urbana-Champaign and the Gies College of Business and is a CPA.
