Patrick D. Lamb, JD General Counsel

Since its inception, Mr. Patrick D. Lamb has been TargaCell's General Counsel. For nearly 40 years, he has practiced law in Illinois's state and federal courts. Patrick, who is "Of Counsel" now with Plunkett & Cooney P.C. in the firm's Chicago office, provides a myriad of legal services to over 100 corporate entities, trusts, financial institutions, and businesses with expertise in the areas of commercial, banking, corporate and business law.

As a former real estate broker and title examiner, he has practical business experience developing, owning, and investing in commercial real estate ventures. Patrick has participated in hundreds of trials, including partnership disputes, commercial mortgage foreclosure, breach of fiduciary duty, stockholder claims, breach of contract, and other commercial matters. He represented small, medium, and large corporations throughout his career. In addition, Patrick is a recognized and retained expert in legal malpractice matters, having at one time defended Attorneys accused of legal malpractice. His estate administrative practice has included Will contests and Probate and Trust disputes.

Mr. Lamb is a graduate of the University of Dayton and The John Marshall Law School, Chicago, IL.
